

I Do Not Love, Love

Inches and Falling (I Love, Love) by The Format plays

I am not in love with love like many of my contemporaries.
I am not enticed by such a thing, persuaded or controlled.
And I question if I have what it takes to be the kind of artist I want to be, the kind of man who will do what's right, the kind of boyfriend who will sacrifice, the kind of husband who will listen, the kind of father who will have patience, if love is something that I do not love.
